TRAILS, TALES AND TRADITIONS

Cameron Highlands Resort ushers in the holidays with its annual Christmas Tree Lighting

Cameron Highlands, 8 October 2025 – Across the world, Christmas returns each year not as a date but as a tapestry of traditions. It is where families gather over meals, homes and hotels sparkle, and communities embrace the spirit of generosity and reunion. At the heart of it all stands the Christmas tree — timeless, majestic, and adorned with jewels of light. The lighting of the tree remains a cherished ritual, the spark that signals the season's arrival.

At Cameron Highlands Resort, this tradition takes on a distinctive charm with the annual Christmas Tree Lighting. Set against cool mountain air and misty tea slopes, the highlands offer a rare backdrop in tropical Malaysia that feels made for the season. Here, the cool climate recalls the romance of an English Christmas — the crackle of a fireplace, the scent of mulled spices, and the timeless elegance of heritage halls dressed for the holidays. From 21–23 November, Norwegian pines will be dressed in cascading golden lights as guests gather on the lawn to witness the first flicker transform the grounds into a scene of enchantment. More than a spectacle, the illumination is a symbol — each light a reminder of hope, connection, and the quiet joy of beginning the holidays together.

The Christmas Tree Lighting Weekend package, starting from MYR 2,580++ for up to 2 adults, offers a curated programme of experiences. The highland celebration unfolds with moments both intimate and grand. An afternoon unfolds with the iconic English Afternoon Tea in the Jim Thompson Tea Room, where heritage charm meets festive indulgence. As night falls, a hearty steamboat dinner awaits, bringing a touch of homely comfort to the highlands. The days brim with cheer — from Christmas carolling that fills the resort with song, to pre-dinner cocktails that set the stage for a lavish and elegant Christmas dinner, a feast of seasonal delights crafted for the occasion. The highlight, as night descends, is the enchanting Christmas Tree Lighting ceremony beneath the starlit highland sky, a moment of wonder that marks the true beginning of the season.
